Noises Off

By Michael Frayn

Thursday, October 5, 2023 (10:30 a.m.)

One of the most popular comedies of all time, this Tony Award®-winning play is an ingenious backstage farce. A theater director must prevent his motley company of actors and an overworked crew from sabotaging his production with their off-stage shenanigans—and on-stage bedlam! Full of shocking surprises and gut-busting humor!

Best for high school students and older.

Kings of Harlem

Written and directed by Layon Gray

Celebrating the 100th anniversary of the first Black-owned, all-Black professional basketball team in history, Kings Of Harlem is the story of seven men who overcame adversity to win more than 2,000 games. Formed five years before the Harlem Globetrotters, the New York “Harlem” Rens compiled one of the most impressive winning streaks in basketball history and would change the way the game is played forever. From the writer/director of Black Angels Over Tuskegee, this production transforms DTC’s stage into a full basketball court!

This play is best for older middle school and high school students.

Peter and the Starcatcher

By Rick Elice

Based on the novel by Dave Barry and Ridley Pearson

Music by Wayne Barker

Thursday, December 14, 2023 (10:30 a.m.)

Tuesday, December 19, 2023 (10:30 a.m.)

Hailed as a grownup prequel to Peter Pan, this Tony Award®-winning, swashbuckling production explores the Neverland you never knew. Peter and the Starcatcher upends the century-old legend of Peter Pan with a wildly theatrical reboot of how a nameless orphan came to be The Boy Who Wouldn’t Grow Up. A dozen brilliant actors play more than 100 unforgettable characters, employing ingenious stagecraft and the limitless possibilities of imagination.

This musical is recommended for older elementary, middle, and high school students.

Always...Patsy Cline

Created and originally directed by Ted Swindley

Thursday, February 29, 2024 (10:30 a.m.)

This crowd-pleasing musical, full of down-home country humor and heartfelt emotion, is based on the true story of the friendship between Patsy and a devoted fan. The show features nearly 30 of Cline’s beloved hits, such as “Walkin’ After Midnight,” “I Fall to Pieces,” and “Crazy.” You’ll be tapping your toes and singing along with the timeless songs you know and love!

This musical is recommended for middle and high school students.
